

Albuquerque Community Foundation has partnered with New Mexico Bank and Trust in managing its Charitable Remainder Trusts. This partnership was created to enhance the services the Community Foundation provides to Charitable Remainder Trust donors. New Mexico Bank & Trust is committed to building relationships through friendly, highly personalized and professional service. Decisions affecting client relationships are made by people who live, work, and are actively involved in the community. We are proud to serve through community reinvestment, employee volunteers and top-notch service to our customers.

Our Wealth Management Group provides comprehensive professional trust and wealth management services to individuals and entities within our communities. We have grown significantly in recent years by focusing on one essential element of our business — service. We realize that our clients' needs are diverse and change over time. We tailor our wealth management services to meet those needs and give personal attention to every relationship.

Finally, we are a trust and portfolio management provider with a difference: an unwavering commitment to properly serve all our customers. We are held to the fiduciary duties of loyalty, prudence, full disclosure and accurate record-keeping in all our dealings with our clients. There are no higher standards of care than these.
